BILLING RIGHTS SUMMARY

If you think your bill is wrong, or if you need more information about a transaction on your bill, send your inquiry in writing to the address below as soon as possible. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after the bill was made available to you. You can telephone us, but doing so will not preserve your rights. In your letter, give us the following information:

1. Your name and account number
2. The dollar amount of the suspected error; and
3. A description of the error and why (to the extent you can explain) you believe it is an error. If you need more information, describe the item you are unsure about.

If you have authorized us to automatically pay your bill from your checking or savings account, you can stop payment on any amount you think is wrong by mailing your notice so that we receive it three (3) business days before the payment is scheduled to occur.

You remain obligated to pay the portion of your bill not in dispute, but you do not have to pay any amount in dispute during the time we are resolving the dispute. During that same time, we may not take action to collect disputed amounts or report disputed amounts as delinquent.

Please send your inquiries to:

IMPORTANT INFORMATION REGARDING YOUR ACCOUNT

We may report information about your account to credit bureaus. If we do not receive a payment from you by the due date set forth on the statement, Leader Bank may advance the amount of the payment due from your line, as set out in your Line of Credit and Security Agreement. Such an advance will increase your outstanding principal balance and additional interest charges will apply. If we do not or cannot advance such a payment from your line, late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on your account may be reflected in your credit report.
